

DEBORAH KALB

AUTHOR, EDITOR, BLOGGER

Deborah Kalb is an author, editor, book blogger, podcaster, and former journalist. Her most recent novel is Everything She Most Admired (May 2026). Her other books include the novel Off to Join the Circus (2023) and the middle grade time-travel series The President and Me (2016, 2018, 2020). She's also the co-author of the book Haunting Legacy: Vietnam and the American Presidency from Ford to Obama (2011). She has edited and updated a variety of reference books about history and elections for CQ/SAGE, and has served as a moderator for community book-related events. Deborah worked as a journalist for two decades for news organizations in Washington, D.C., and serves as the host of the longtime book blog Book Q&As with Deborah Kalb. She's also the co-host of the podcast Rereading Our Childhood. She lives in the D.C. area.